GENERAL.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 2nd June 1890.

No. 45.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned kayamgutta and jodi villages, which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said kayamguttadars and Jodidars will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the villages will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the villages shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and her charges, before the property is knocked down, or gives satisfactory proof that the amount of arrears, &c., has been paid up or furnishes security under Section 170 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code.

7. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed be placed in immediate possession, and the villages will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

8. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 90 days from the day of sale and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.

No. 48.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned vrittis in the Halgere jodi village, which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A.M. on the date specified and the vrittis will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that if the sale of the vrittis under attachment does not fetch the full amount of arrears with the interest and other charges, the Deputy Commissioner will sell the whole village.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the vrittis shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, before the property is knocked down or gives satisfactory proof that the amount of arrears, &c., has been paid up or furnishes security under Section 170 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code.

7. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed, be placed in immediate possession and the vrittis will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

8. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 90 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
